

CITY LIFE

Capital celebration: from the city life of Soho to the carnival in Notting Hill, this is a walk through the streets of London as captured by Gerry Fox. The 44-year-old artist has created a series of synchronised multiple screens showing film installations inspired by the city where he lives and works, making up a single work, entitled Living London. It is being shown at the 176 Gallery in Prince of Wales Road, Chalk Farm.

PICTURE: ALEX LENTATI