

TOP FIVE GALLERIES

Rachel Campbell-Johnston

1 LIVING LONDON

Gerry Fox's striking artistic debut— a multi-screen installation that leads you on a journey through London and life. 176 Prince of Wales Road, NW5 (www.projects-space176.com 020-7428 8940), from Jan 30, free

2 THE FOURTH PLINTH COMMISSION: NEW PROPOSALS EXHIBITION

Who will keep Nelson company? Six artists submit their proposals. National Gallery, Trafalgar Square, WC2 (www.nationalgallery.org.uk 020-7747 2885), until Mar 30, free

3 FROM RUSSIA: FRENCH AND RUSSIAN MASTER PAINTINGS 1870-1925 FROM MOSCOW AND ST PETERSBURG

The show that caused a diplomatic fracas. Royal Academy of Arts, Burlington House, Piccadilly, W1 (www.royalacademy.org.uk 0870 8488484), until Apr 11, £11, concs available

4 JAMES MYLNE

Work by an artist who, having recovered from psychotic illness, explores the thresholds between the ideal and the real. Coningsby Gallery, 30 Tottenham Street, London W1 (www.coningsbygalleries.com 020-7636 1064), from Mon, free

5 UNNATURAL HABITATS

Three artists explore the niche of contemporary man in the natural world. Flowers East, 82 Kingsland Road, E2 (www.flowerseast.com 020-7920 7777), until Feb 8, free

 For more art in your area, timesonline.co.uk/visualarts